How He Foretold Weather.

At Whitby, when the moon is surrounded by a halo of watery clouds, the seamen say there will be a change of weather, for the moon dogs are about. An amusing story is told about a fisherman in Torquay. A gale having taken place during the night, he said he had foreseen it, as he had noticed a star ahead of the moon towing her and another astern chasing her. "I know'd 'twas coming then, safe enough," he told them all.—London Mail.

First Annual Reduction Sale

OF

Registered Holsteins

AT JAYEMA FARM

Dr. J. M. Allen, Owner, St. Johnsbury, Vermont

Friday, September 6, 1918

AT ONE O'CLOCK P. M.

There will be sold to the highest bidder 31 head of PURE-BRED HOLSTEINS, every one bred in the purple and the finest lot ever sold in this part of Vermont. Some of the best of the world's sires are represented by progeny in this sale: Pietje Alcartra Korndyke, a son of Pietje Alcartra Fayne, which latter has 30 A. R. O. daughters as high as 29½ butter in 7 days. Allamuchy Korndyke Prilly, son of that great transmitting sire Korndyke Abbekirk with 57 A. R. O. daughters: Sir Pietertje Soldene the sire of 7 A. R. O. and one of these was the great EVA MAY ELLIS 5TH, which was the first two-year-old to make 31½ lbs of butter in 7 days, (his three months' old sister will be sold.) Fayne Sir Mutual De Kol with over two score of A. R. O. daughters, and many other well known sires of this greatest of all dairy breeds. There are 14 of milking age, some to freshen soon, many with records up to 21 lbs. in 7 days, and the balance are most choicely bred young animals all under two years of age. There are a few young bulls good enough for any herd. Mr. Farmer, haven't YOU raised the kind of calves that sell for $10.00 long enough? If so come and buy one of these cows and I will buy the heifer back when it comes and is all right and well grown at three months old and will pay you $75.00 for her. I will also breed the dam FREE to Pietje Alcartra Korndyke, at any time within one year of the sale. Think it over carefully and send for catalogue, if interested, to Dr. J. M. Allen, or to D. A. Perry, Auctioneer, Barre, Vt.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX CLOTHES

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes for true economy

"The best is the cheapest"—an ancient wisdom; the deep truth of it is now being made clearer. Clothes made of right materials in the right way lasts longer and look better; you pay more for them, but they cost less than poor stuff.

The reason we talk about Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes and say that if you need clothes they're the ones you ought to buy, is because the long wear and satisfaction you get makes them the least expensive clothes we know of.

The Kaiser The Beast of Berlin

Gem Theatre, Barton, Tues., Sept. 10, 7 and 8:45 P. M.

An Amazing Expose of the Intimate Life of the Mad Dog of Europe

A Master Production with Rupert Julian and cast of 35 others. Shows the Kaiser from the inside. A great success in New York and Boston.

"THE KAISER"

Did you know that the Kaiser had a poison-filled abscess in his ear, and that if it burst he would be a raving maniac?

Did you know that the Kaiser's left arm is six inches shorter than his right, and that the hand is as puny as a child's?

Did you know that the Kaiser has a mania for admiring beautiful hands? And that he wears many bracelets and feminine rings? That he has 360 full dress uniforms; that he was twice a king, twice a grand duke, twice a prince, nine times a count, besides being a bishop?

All these things and many more in the private life of the Jackal of Europe who has plunged the whole world into war and sorrow, are shown in "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin." To miss it is to miss the most wonderful opportunity to see as he really is the personality of this enemy of mankind.

Also at Orleans Opera House, Wed., Sept. 11, at 8:15 p. m.

THE WHO AND WHAT OF

"Over The Top" Empey

Sergt. Arthur Guy Empey in Vitagraph's Master production, "Over the Top."

M. P. No. 9

The United States War Department, in recognition of the patriotic nature of "Over the Top," and the service rendered by Sergeant Empey to his country, granted Albert E. Smith, president of the Vitagraph Company, the privilege of filming the great trench scene of "Over the Top" at the regular army cantonment, Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga. Seventy-five hundred regulars appear under the command of Empey in this master production.

Empey entered the world at Ogden, Utah, December 11, 1883; spent his childhood on a ranch in Richmond, Va., and Canada, and was educated in the public schools of Brooklyn, N. Y., where he won recognition as a football and baseball player.

Made his start as an adventurer and soldier of fortune at the age of seventeen when he joined a school-mate in "a trip to South America" on a tramp steamer, which evolved into a "Shanghai" expedition that took them around Cape Horn and into many perilous experiences.

Put in three years in the U. S. navy, six years in the regular U. S. cavalry, saw active service on the Mexican border in 1911, quit the rank of Sergeant-Major and returned to civil pursuits in the East, later serving for seven years as a National Guardsman in New York and New Jersey.

Enlisted in the Royal Fusiliers of London in December, 1915, to avenge the sinking of the Lusitania, went to France and served 18 months in the front line trenches, became a bomber and machine gunner, was promoted to a serjeancy for bravery and was wounded seven times going "over the top."

Yearned for America to enter the war on the side of civilization and when she did, came back with his wounds, wrote "Over the Top," an epic of the trenches, recruited thousands of men, sold $1,011,000 in Liberty Bonds, raised over $50,000 for "smoke" funds and went into motion pictures to show through the Vitagraph production of "Over the Top" just what we are up against over there.
